RESOURCE MOBILIZATION POLICY AND PROCESS

- BGS GIMS is a self-financing private institution.
- The mobilization of funds is through collection of fees from students of institute.
- Donations and loans from banks and BGS GIMS Trust may be obtained as necessary.
- These loans and fees collected from students are the main source of funds.
- The fixation of fees is done by Fee Regulatory authority.
- The mobilized funds are spent on salaries, infrastructure, development. equipment. maintenance, and other operating expenses.
- Every year during College Council meeting which are held 3-4 times in a year , inputs from head of the departments are considered regarding various requirements. Head of the institute submits final requirement of the institute to the Management.
- The annual budget of the institute and utilization of allocated funds are optimized.
- At the end of the year the financial audit is conducted by Chartered Accountant.
